Committee & Special Assignment Reports: None.

Communications & Petitions: Clerk Casey reminded Legislature the next Legislative meeting on September 23rd will be at 4:30 p.m.

Legislator Comments: Legislator Klotzbach thanked Clerk Lisa Casey for all her work and effort at the ICAWNY meeting in May. Chairman Yunker commented that Clerk Casey always does a good job at hosting, highlighting various locations and getting County leadership from all over Western New York.

County Manager Report: County Manager Matt Landers provided an update on an event that occurred on Rt. 262 in Bergen. There was roadwork that was being completed and the County had a vendor in charge of laying down chipseal. The vendor ended up using material that has worked well in the past but did not work this time. As a result, numerous cars ended up stuck on the road, some significant damage to some of the cars, it was magnified being the first week of school. Caused a little bit of a panic which the Byron-Bergen School District sent messaging out to parents. County Manager Landers, Sheriff Graff, Laura Wadhams and Steven Falitico met with school officials. County Manager Landers reported that Commissioner Wadhams and team along with the vendor Midland Paving were able to reopen Rt 262.
